A FORGED LETTER.

PASSENGER TRAINS COLLIDE.

Sixty-Two People Are Dead and 142 Were More or Less Injured.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Huntington on a railroad, it is a supposedly high condition of maintenance, and having about them every safeguard known to modern railroading, two trains on the Southern railway, carrying heavy lists of passengers, came together in a frightful head-on collision near Hedges, Tenn., Saturday.

The appalling loss of life and maiming of the living resulted apparently from the disregarding of orders given to the two trains to meet at a station which has for a long time been their regular meeting point.

The death list as a result of the fatal wreck bad grown Sunday night to 62 and it will probably exceed 70 before Tuesday, as many of the injured are in a serious condition and more deaths will occur at the hospital. Sunday there were six deaths at that institution, the last one occurring at 8 o'clock Sunday night, when M. P. Itani, a prominent North Carolinian, residing at Shely, N. C., passed away. Others who died Sunday at the hospital were the two colored firemen, two little girls and Ned Miller, colored, of Johnson City. In the list of dead there must be added an unknown infant found Sunday at the scene of the wreck and two other unidentified bodies.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 26.—A telegram has been received at Gaffney, this state, announcing the death of Lee Hill at Jellico, Tenn., who was killed in an explosion in a powder mill.

The body was expected at Gaffney Saturday night but instead a telegram was received stating that the body, accompanied by Scott Hill, his father, Lee Hill's wife and four children, and a single sister were all on the ill-fated Southern train which was wrecked Saturday and that all were killed.

The bodies of all seven of the family are expected to reach (Inquirer Monday) morning.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 27.—No additional deaths of injured occurred Monday and the death list of the Southern wreck near Newmarket on Saturday last still stands at 62. All of the injured at the Knoxville general hospital are reported doing well and only four or five are so desperately wounded that death may result from their injuries.

SCHOOLHOUSE HORROR.

Floor of Outhouse Gave Way and Nine Little Girls Drowned.

Cincinnati, Sept. 24.—With a crash that struck terror to the childish hearts, the door of a vault building in the rear of the Pleasant Ridge schoolhouse, on Montgomery pike, suddenly gave way, sending nine children to an awful death and causing injuries to several others.

Ten children were at recess, shortly after 10 o'clock, and a score or more of girls had crowded into the brick building back of the schoolhouse. It is supposed that the beams holding this floor must have been weak, although this was not suspected until after the accident.

There was a crashing, tearing sound as the floor suddenly began to give way. This was the first intimation to the children bad of danger. One began to scream. It was taken up by another, and then, as the flooring began to sink, the tots, their faces blanched and voices lifted in cries to be saved, began a mad rush from the trap of death.

At 11:30 nine bodies had been recovered. At that hour an estimate of those missing placed the number of those falling into the vault at over 50. It was stated that the joints under the flooring gave way and suddenly precipitated with all who were in the outhouse at the time.

The following is the list of the dead: Carmen Card, aged 9; Fausto Card, 11; Martin Huhr, 9; Lillian Wilkin, 9; Hazel Oliver, 9; Edna Thee, 10; Florence Foote, 8; Emma Steinberg, 12; Rosalia Hosen, 9.

Twenty-three were rescued alive.

Middleboro, Ky., Sept. 27.—Jefferson Ester killed Max Wolf in a fit of jealous rage and also shot and wounded his own wife. In his dying agonies, Wolf managed to shoot Ester through the bowels. Wolf, it is claimed, had been paying attention to Ester's wife for some time, escorting her to church and places of amusement. On last Thursday night Wolf took Mrs. Ester to a ministerial show. Ester then forbade Wolf from entering his house again. Sunday night, when Ester came in from Barberville, on an evening train, he found Wolf at his house. He immediately began firing. The latest reports from Ester are that he will die.

Has Sold a Pile of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it relieves the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by A. M. Hughes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Chas. R. Jones, colored, was spirited away from Versailles Monday night and brought here to escape lynching for attempted criminal assault. The complainant is Lucy, 16-year-old daughter of Capt. Sam Fong, a prominent farmer. Miss Fong and a neighbor girl were horseback riding together. Her companion turned in her gate and Miss Fong proceeded toward her home. When within half a mile the Negro jumped out from a thicket and caught her bride reins. She whipped up the horse. The Negro then jumped on another horse concealed in the bushes and gave pursuit. The horse race was a furious one. The girl save life and honor and the Negro to accomplish a brutal purpose. The girl finally won the race. Her father and a neighbor gave pursuit and captured the Negro and the horse. The Negro was shot but the neighbor prevented. Shortly after the Negro was placed under arrest the farmers began to pour into Versailles and he was spirited away to Lexington.

OBITUARY.

The old saying, "Death loves a shining mark," was never more fully verified than in the instance of the death of Malcolm Short, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Short, formerly of this country, who are at present
residents of Normal, Ky.

Malcolm was born July 15, 1882,
and departed this life August 18, 1904. He was first affected with what was thought to be an abscess of the thigh bone some time in June, and was placed under the care of Dr. W. A. Berry, of Ashland. He grew gradually worse and other medical aid was called in.
His disease proved to be necrosis, an consumption of the bone, and as a final resort, the physicians decided to amputate his leg. This was done before noon on the 18th day of August, and he never rallied from the effects of the anesthetic dying about 1 p. m. of the same day.

OBITUARY.

Elizabeth Frances, daughter of Richard and Frances Ramey Elson, and widow of Strawther W. Roberts,
was born in Morgan county, Kentucky, Sept. 27, 1823 and died at Frazier, July 27, 1904.

Elizabeth Frances Roberts possessed those rare graces of head and heart, that make one congenial and lovable. At the early age of 15
she joined the Christian Church, and those who have known her most intimately declare she has lived an exemplary life. The Bible was her guide in all things. She had a fondness for its teachings, and in health or affliction she found it the source of her greatest joy.

"Annt. Betty" is now gone!
"Friends on earth" could keep her no longer. Her body in a prisoner in the grave but the soul of the octogenarian is set free. Here is the tribute we come to pay to her memory. It is the highest tribute ever paid by mortal to departed friends. In her life there was nothing. She had a pure heart.

FRIENDS.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such a brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Haven, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with Knee disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Shavers. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies, "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Besides the knee he doth all things well,"
and should they follow his example while here and live faithfully
to his memory the parting with Malcolm will not be long.

Uncle Mart Beville, of Cancy Fork, spent Sunday at H. C. Hicks'.
Harry Arrington was on our creek Sunday.

His remains were brought to Fallsburg, his former home, on Friday morning, and interred in the cemetery at that place. Numerous friends from Normal accompanied them. A beautiful floral pillow with which his grave was decorated,
was given as a last token of remembrance by his Sunday-School Teacher, Mrs. Annie Kerr.

Although it may seem hard to the bereaved and almost destitute parents, and many friends that one whose future seemed blooming so bright with hope should be stricken down so early in life, yet it is the fact of "Him who doth all things well,"
and should they follow his
example while here and live faithfully
to his memory the parting with Malcolm will not be long.

Dick Lions, of Irish creek, was on

Rev. Cheap, pastor of the M. E. Church, left Wednesday in attendence of a conference which is in session at Barboursville, Ky., this week.

Henderson Hale, an old and respected citizen, is very seriously ill. He is threatened with septic gangrene, and his mind is much deranged.

You will find a complete line of men's and children's fall and winter hats and caps, other articles such as mink and wraps, etc., now on display over Justice's store.

It is expected that Rev. O. F. Williams, incumbent for the present winter, will hold the services at the Southern Methodist Church, next Sunday.

An elegant vestibule coach was sent to the up train Monday. One should be on every train and be kept for wind and sober men.

In Jeome was the first to put winter work to a practical use. He was forced to the reservoir yesterday and he used it to spring a street in front of his livery.

Our prices on hay, corn, meal, chicken feed, flour, salt and bacon are the lowest, qualities the best, terms & credit. Store opposite depot.

D. J. Burchett, Jr. & Co. tennis boys went to Ashland yesterday and played the "rubber" with the Park City Club, and won by a score of 3 to 2, reversing the score of the game the week before.

Kentucky Conference of the Church began its annual session at Barboursville, Wednesday.

Rev. Cheap, who has served God here very faithfully during two years, is in attendance.

Examination of John Legg, charged with the murder of Daniels, was continued by the coroner until Monday. A witness, a woman, was in Morgan county and was sent for her.

Somebody recently prescribed a remedy for want of vision caused by a "run" in the system of street lights. To reach the affected part, a doctor, a nurse, a policeman, a dark night and a doctor are coming, and we are how to avoid the remedy along the sidewalks.

After 12 years I have had a great many difficulties and from down to up, I have had a great many difficulties. You have done to your work and given your best. You are now in the way of getting a good job.

REGISTERED NEXT TUESDAY.
As was told in The News last week, next Tuesday, October 1st, is Registration Day, and it is the date of all voters coming within the prescribed requirements, to register on that day. We again announce the date in order that some may forget it. The law requires that all voters who live in towns of any class, no matter what size or what their population, shall register at the usual voting place and receive a certificate of such registration from the duly appointed officer. You will not be permitted to vote at the November election unless you at the time of offering to vote present your certificate. In case of loss before the day of election another can be procured from the County Clerk on payment of fifty cents. In Lawrence county three places are affected by the registration law—Louisa, Fallsburg and Blaine. Very many who vote at these places live outside the corporate limits of those places. These are not required to register. Bear this in mind and do not worry. But we say to all other voters, and particularly to our Democratic friends, be sure and go to the place of registration next Tuesday and employ with the law, thus insuring your right to vote next November.

It is about time to put an end to this thing of a lot of toughs, or one tough, terrorizing the decent passenger when business or pleasure leads them to travel by rail. It strikes us that one of the first steps to prevent such outrages is to refuse to carry a drunken passenger. A conductor has a moral if not a legal right to refuse a drunken man admittance to a coach, and public sentiment, sometimes stronger than law, would surely uphold such a conductor. The law against shooting on a train, or flourishing a pistol on a train, is strong and explicit. The latter offense is now punishable by confinement in the penitentiary and should be rigidly enforced. The necessity for such a law and its enforcement ought not to require any argument whatever. But juries are queer conglomerates sometimes, and one can not always tell what they are going to do. The mere fact that a man is a "clever feller when he is sober" shouldn't weigh a hair in the feller's favor. He knows exactly what he is prone to do when he is drunk, and this knowledge should keep him sober. One of these "clever fellers" recently created a great deal of alarm on a big Sandy train—he was not a Sandus, by the by—and there is no telling what he might have done with his 12-pounder if Conductor Blevins had not "saw his bluf" and raised him several better."

Frank treats a muss like he treats a snake—settles the thing at once and asks what kind of a varmint it was afterward. A new era has dawned for this valley, and may we not hope that with the dawning of the darkness of toughism and rowdism has gone forever?

The Bureau of Information and Publicity—beg pardon, ladies, the Gosalip Club—met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. James Carey. This is a club composed of several of the younger married set who meet each afternoon for social chat and enjoyment. The Club has no serious aim, not being connected with any particular church, and not meeting to discuss drowning or to rave over some one-armed statue of Venus or some hideous vase recently unearthed from the ruins of Pompeii. What they really do we can not say. No horrid male person is allowed nearer than the street, but we bet they have a good time.

Louis is certainly sending its quota of visitors to the World's Fair at St. Louis. The departure of many of our people was noted in the News last week, and tomorrow several others will leave for a ten days' stay. Among them are Dr. M. G. Watson, Miss Kate Froese, Misses Matie and Emma Wallace, Mrs. Nannie Hayes and Mrs. A. J. Garred. This year will be joined at Ashland by Misses Martha and Bertha Watson. Those who left last Saturday report a safe but delayed arrival and a good time.

D. C. Spencer, of this place, is now night clerk at the Manard Hotel in Cattlettsburg. Mr. Spencer is specially fitted for this work by his genial disposition. He has a wide acquaintance among the travelling public. For several years he conducted a successful restaurant and hotel, and later was in the grocery business, Big Sandy people will do well to stop with him in Cattlettsburg, as he will look after their accommodation carefully.

The work of putting in the water system is progressing rapidly and well. The splendid engine and pump at the foot of Franklin street have already forced water into the mains. Several fire plugs have been put in, and some citizens are having the water led into their premises.

The mains on Main-Cross and the streets parallel to it are six-inch and part of the reservoir pipe is eight-inch.

The railway company has a force at work putting the approaches to the street crossings in good order. New ties and crossing-bonds are replacing worn out ones and the track through town is being put in first class condition.

Will Rose, formerly of Ashland, will assist Agent Justice in the freight office. He has already been a reduction of ten cents.

The new passenger rate to Ashland will take effect October 1st. It will be eighty cents one way and $1.50 round trip from Louisa. This is a reduction of ten cents.

For over a third of a century Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has sold more largely than any other blood purifier or stomach tonic.

Big sales to day than ever before, as that is the true test.

Curse of the world, why not you?

Makes rich red blood.

An imitation of nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and important parts of the blood.

and nervous force is used when you take an alternative extract of herbs and roots, without the use of alcohol, as does Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This vegetable medicine coaxes the digestive functions and helps in the assimilation of food, or rather takes from the food just the nutriment the blood requires.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies the blood and entirely eradicates the poison that breed and feed disease. It cures acne, eczema, erysipelas, boils, pimples and other eruptions that mar and scar the skin. Pure blood is essential to good health. The weak, rundown, debilitated condition which many people experience is common to the effect of impure blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery not only cures the blood of impurities, but it increases the activity of the blood purifying glands, and it enriches the body with an abundant supply of pure, rich blood.

No master, how powerful the intellect or the resources of the medical profession, it can be used by physical force. Every day the youth or man must manufacture a pint of rich, arterial blood, that is pure, stimulating to the brain and that can rebuild the tissues that were destroyed in yesterday's work.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

COUNTY FAIR

And Farmers' Institute to be Held At Louisa October 6, 7 and 8.

The date decided upon for the Lawrence County fair this year is October 6, 7 and 8.

A letter to Col. Northup from the Commissioner of Agriculture says he will be present and bring some able speakers to make addresses on agricultural subjects. This will be of great benefit to the farmers of our community, if they will only avail themselves of the opportunity. The speaking and discussions will begin on Friday morning.

Fall particular will be given next week. Instead of publishing a list of products, all are urged to bring everything produced by them that is worthy of display.

Our farmers are requested to bring in all the various kinds of products heretofore shown at these fairs, as well as any others worthy of display. Entries should be made the first day, so as to give the secretary time to get proper record and avoid confusion.

It has been decided to put the fair up on a slightly different basis this year.

The chief aim has always been one of education, seeking to awaken new interest in farming and raise the standard of this great industry. We congratulate ourselves that much good has been accomplished. Heretofore small premiums have been used to stimulate the interest. It is now believed that the enterprise has reached the point where the interest is sufficient to put the fair on its proper basis and do away with prizes. Ribbons representing the decisions of the judges will be used. No entry fee will be charged.

It is hoped and believed that our people will take as much interest in securing the blue ribbon, or other ribbons indicating excellent quality, as in procuring a small cash prize. This is the higher ideal and the one that will result in advancing agriculture and stock raising. Let all join in with enthusiasm and help to show the best of everything we produce.

Sour Stomach.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided.
